

6. What do you hope you will do differently next time you are given a research project?

7. What was your research question and what is the most interesting fact you learned about the information?

8. What about your research experience are you most proud and why?

9. What tips would you give to a peer who is about to embark on a research project to help him/her be successful?

10. Researcher William Henry says, "What is research, but a blind date with knowledge." What do you think he means?